

PATE'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL FOUNDATION & THE RICHARD PATE SCHOOL ("the School")

Key Stage 2 Class teacher – Full time

Information pack

About Us

The Richard Pate School is owned and operated by Pate's Grammar School Foundation. It is a successful independent day school for 3-11 year olds. We offer children a broad education in modern facilities, including spacious, purpose-built classrooms and specialist Music, Art, Languages and Science block. The School has an excellent record of admissions to both grammar and independent schools, with 52% moving on to grammar schools and a large number gaining scholarships to independent schools. The School also provides a broad education in sport, art, drama and languages and a varied extra-curricular programme as well.

Vacancy Details

This is a full-time post for a suitably qualified Key Stage 2 Class Teacher to join us from September 2023. The successful applicant would be a class teacher in the Junior Department and responsible for a subject as curriculum leader. A willingness to become involved in the wider school life is essential.

To be successful in this role you must be:

- Qualified with QTS and have experience of teaching a range of subjects to KS2.
- An outstanding classroom practitioner focused on raising standards and supporting the pastoral care and individual needs of every pupil.
- Enthusiastic about being part of a supportive team, prepared to be immersed fully into school life.
- Capable of communicating effectively with pupils, colleagues and parents.
- Respectful of the School's aims and values.

In return we offer a positive working environment with supportive colleagues and regular opportunities for professional development and training. We expect all our staff to engage in pedagogical reflection and development, and to contribute to ongoing improvements in learning and curriculum design and delivery.

Job Description

To carry out the professional duties of an exceptional classroom teacher under the direction of the Headmaster.

- Being responsible for the planning and delivery of the agreed curriculum within his or her own class.
- Being capable of teaching English and mathematics to I I+ Common Entrance and Scholarship to independent schools.
- Being directly responsible to the Headmaster and Director of Studies regarding schemes of work and policy documents.
- Promoting good progress and modifying the curriculum so that children are working at appropriate tasks.
- Facilitating a developing sense of independence in each child – vital to self-esteem.
- Making accurate and productive use of assessment in conjunction with School Manager.
- Having proper regard for the presentation of the room both in respect of children's needs and the visual impact for visitors – i.e. good classroom management and organisation.
- Being required to co-ordinate one national curriculum subject.
- Being aware of his / her own "on-going" professional development including training opportunities which might be appropriate under the Performance Management Policy.
- Understanding and implementing the School's Safeguarding and Health & Safety policies
- Sharing various duties.
- Communicating effectively / professionally with parents on academic, pastoral and behavioural issues.
- Committing to the philosophy and ethos of the school.

C. The Role of the Subject Leader

- To provide professional leadership and direction for the subject.
- To ensure that the subject is organised to meet the aims and objectives of the School and the subject.
- To support and guide teachers and support staff throughout the school.
- To work closely with the Prep Department curriculum leader to ensure continuity throughout the School.
- To lead the School through Curriculum Focus for your subject alongside your Prep. Department counterpart.

Desirable but not essential – ability to teach boys or girls games, ability to lead English or Computing as a subject area and/or an interest in drama and experience with supporting school productions.

All responsibilities outlined in this job specification are subject to review and change from time to time.
